Fired in Retaliation for Organizing Collective Bargaining Rights for Pueblo Sheriff's Deputies.

Sergeant Tommie McLallen

President Lodge 7

Pueblo County

Fraternal Order of Police

McLallen was fired by Pueblo County Sheriff Kirk Taylor in the most blatant act of retaliation we have seen in years. McLallen is the duly elected President of the Lodge which has been involved in a 20 month struggle to gain collective bargaining for the Deputies of Pueblo County. The Sheriff's office fabricated charges based on false testimony and manufactured events in order to fire the President and in so doing hoped to silence the voice of the workforce and destroy their chosen representative organization. In fact that outrageous act has united the members and strengthened the resolve of the local organization. The Colorado FOP is moving forward with a Federal lawsuit on McLallen's behalf, and he will eventually prevail. However, the family needs assistance making ends meet. We are reaching out to our brothers and sisters for donations to Tommie's Support Fund. Any amount donated is greatly appreciated.
